ABOUT TROOP 505 – chartered in 1964, the Troop has been continuously active in Naperville since its inception. We currently have 50 scouts and have many actively involved adults. We believe that Scouts grow and learn best in a boy-led organization, with adult guidance. Troop 505 supports a strong outdoor program and is organized into patrols, with appropriate age-based leadership to guide and encourage advancement. We have graduated 189 Eagle Scouts over the past 50 years.

Our weekly meetings are held on Monday nights at Knox Presbyterian Church at 7:30pm and we camp every month during the school year, in addition to many fun events and service projects. Over the summer, every boy has the opportunity to attend summer camp, and First Class scouts can participate in High Adventure Camps such as Philmont, Sea Base, Boundary Waters and the new Summit Bechtel Reserve.
